Mr. T. Amplas Weldon has accepted a position with a drug establishment in Memphis, Tenn., and left Monday night for that city. Saturday's Mayfield Messenger has the following to say regarding this gentleman:

"Mr. T. A. Weldon left for his home in Marion, Ky., this morning. For ten months Mr. Weldon has been in the drug business here and in that time he has made many warm friends, who regret his departure, and they wish for him and his excellent wife all the good fortune and happiness possible."

Arthur Finley, until recently manager of the telephone exchange at Providence, was the guest of his parents in this city this week. The following is copied from the Providence record:

"Arthur Finley, who has been local manager of Alexander's telephone exchange, has resigned his position to accept one with the Cumberland Telephone and Telegraph Company, and will leave in a few days for Nashville to enter the electrical training department there. During his sojourn in Providence he has deported himself as a gentleman and has filled his position in a most satisfactory and creditable manner. He is a young man of intelligence and fine morals and has excellent social standing. He will leave many friends here who wish him well in what ever he undertakes. It is not as yet known whom his successor will be."
